Another dry and sunny day for the team as we continue of project to Bloom up Bridge Street. Today was the first of our staining and painting days. Lots of preparation sanding back the railings and the benches to begin with, but then the brushes came out.

Julie, Margaret and Soo making a start of the railings.

First coat of black gloss and already its beginning to look rather good.

Steve, Bob and Martin A still getting the flaky paint off the railings.

Ali and Martin L sanding back the benches.

Andy, Russell and Phil at the far end doing a bit of sanding too.

Ian and Alison doing a great job getting the weeds up from the front of the central benches.

Stewart painting the concrete planter at the front entrance

15 volunteers today – what an impact that made - Ali, Phil, Stewart, Ian, Alison, Bob, Steve, Andy NS, Russell, Martin A, Soo, Margaret, Julie and Martin L. Thanks too to Liz and Mick – it makes all the difference with your support.
